Enduring power of attorney – short form (Queensland)

This form allows you to appoint someone you trust (an ‘attorney’) to make decisions for you during your lifetime. Use this form to appoint:

- » attorney(s) for personal (including health) matters only
- » attorney(s) for financial matters only
- » the same attorney(s) for both personal (including health) matters and financial matters.

Before you complete this form, read Form 9 – Enduring power of attorney explanatory guide, consider who you want to appoint and talk to them.

This is a legal document that can significantly affect your legal rights. It is recommended that you seek independent legal advice before completing this form.

Forms and explanatory guides are available at www.qld.gov.au/guardianship-planahead

Is this the right form for you?

- » Use Form 2 — Enduring power of attorney – short form (this form) to appoint:
 - » attorney(s) for personal (including health) matters only
 - » attorney(s) for financial matters only
 - » the same attorney(s) for both personal (including health) matters and financial matters.
- » Use Form 3 — Enduring power of attorney – long form to appoint different attorneys for personal (including health) matters and for financial matters.

What is an enduring power of attorney?

Your enduring power of attorney allows you to appoint someone you trust to make decisions for you during your lifetime. The person you appoint is called your 'attorney'. Your attorney does not have to be a lawyer. As the person who is making this enduring power of attorney, you are referred to as the 'principal'.

What types of decisions can your attorney make for you?

Your attorney can make decisions about:

- » personal (including health) matters
Personal matters relate to personal or lifestyle decisions. This includes decisions about support services, where and with whom you live, health care and legal matters that do not relate to your financial or property matters.
- » financial matters
Financial matters relate to your financial or property affairs including paying expenses, making investments, selling property or carrying on a business.

Important information about your enduring power of attorney

- » You can decide when your attorney(s)' power to make decisions for financial matters begins. Your attorney(s)' power to make decisions for personal matters operates during times when you do not have capacity to make decisions about those matters.
- » During those times your attorney(s) will have full powers to make decisions unless you set terms or provide instructions in this form.
- » This form can only be completed by an adult who has capacity to make an enduring power of attorney. This means you must fully understand the nature and effect of this document and the powers it gives. You must be making this document freely and voluntarily, not due to pressure from someone else.
- » You must sign this form in the presence of an eligible witness (a justice of the peace (JP), commissioner for declarations, lawyer or notary public).
- » If an interpreter is required to interpret or translate this document, they should complete Form 7 – Interpreter's/translator's statement.

What to do with this enduring power of attorney once complete:

- » keep the original in a safe place
- » give a certified copy to your attorney(s), doctor, other health provider(s), bank or lawyer
- » notify your close family and friends that you have made an enduring power of attorney and where to find the document
- » if your attorney(s) wish to deal with land in Queensland on your behalf, your enduring power of attorney must first be registered with the Queensland Titles Registry by lodging a Form 16 – Request to register power of attorney, together with a single-sided certified copy of the enduring power of attorney.
